RANDY BARNHART APPOINTED MINISTER AT JOHNS CREEK CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Former Peachtree Christian Associate Minister to Grow JCCC

JOHNS CREEK – May 7, 2009 – Johns Creek Christian Church today announced the appointment of Rev. Randy Barnhart to the position of Senior Minister.

“I’m excited to be part of this dynamic congregation,” Barnhart says. “Johns Creek is a small but growing congregation that offers a loving and giving place to worship.”

During the month of May, sermons and worship celebrations will explore the theme, “Joy in Hard Times.” The series will explore how the unfailing presence of the Living Lord and confidence that comes only from knowing Him. This teaching series is a life-changing, practical message from God’s Word for people with friends and family struggling with hard times. The first in this powerful series can be heard on May 3rd. Worship Services are held on Sundays at 10:45am at Johns Creek Christian Church, 10800 Bell Road, Johns Creek, Georgia. All are welcome to attend and childcare will be provided.

The Johns Creek Community is also invited to the upcoming Family Movie Night scheduled for Saturday, May 9th. A Bar-b-que Dinner will be served at 7:30pm along with games and fun. The family friendly movie will follow at 8:30pm. All families from the community are invited to attend this budget friendly family night event.

Barnhart and his wife Wendy and sons Andrew and Ben reside in Atlanta. Randy comes to us from our mother church, Peachtree Christian, where he served as Associate Minister for seven years. He is a graduate from Emmanuel School of Religion and holds a Law Degree from Georgia State University College of Law.

Johns Creek Christian Church is also home to JCCC Preschool and provides many other ministries and community outreach programs to the South Forsyth, Gwinnett and North Fulton areas of North East Atlanta.
