

This Sunday!

We have a remarkable group of teenagers here at JC3 who are learning every day what it means to walk with Christ. This Sunday is Youth Sunday, which means the teenagers of our church will take prominent roles in leading worship. Sunday you will be greeted by youth, ushered by our youth and served by them as well in worship. I know you'll want to be present as they lead us to offer our very best to God this Sunday at 10:45 a.m.

Introducing the JC3 Youth Band!

The JC3 Youth praise band will make their worship leadership debut this Sunday. The music will be a little different, but the love will be the same. The instruments may vary from what you are accustomed to, but the praises offered will be "the old, old story." In other words, the essence of worship will most surely fill our worship center this Lord's day -- as it always does, even though the form may be new to some of us. Our teens praise God along with the band each Sunday evening at 6PM at CONNECTIONS, our weekly youth group meeting, and they have been looking forward to sharing their musical gifts -- and God's marvelous grace -- with you this Sunday.

Pax Christi,

Randy

Act Three: Israel

God chose Israel to be his people before they were even a nation. He called them, chose them, He loved them, and He had a great mission for them. Yet time and time again Israel turned her back on God and wandered away. What happens when the one God intends to be a light to the nations chooses herself to walk in darkness? This is the story of Israel, God's chosen nation. It is also hauntingly familiar because it is my story -- and it is yours. What can we do when we have failed, repeatedly, to walk with God as we know we should? Come join us Sunday for "Act Three: Israel" as we continue to examine "The History of the World in 5 Acts." There is Good News!

APRIL 4 -- Easter

Begin now making a list of the friends, relatives, neighbors and associates you will pray for and invite to Easter worship at JCCC.
